TA_BPRPR_QD

Duration: 15 Weeks
Semester One, September 2018 to January 2019

Who is this course for?

This diploma is designed for people who have successfully completed the CIPD Foundation Level Certificate in Human Resource Practice. The course is structured to progress the CIPD HR Profession Map membership criteria. It provides as such a more in-depth understanding of HR in a business context, and enables you to develop the knowledge and skills to further increase your contribution to the HR function.

The course should also be of interest to those who wish to do a suite of stand-alone modules.

Entry Requirements

Members of the CIPD who have completed either the CIPD Foundation Certificate in Human Resource Practice (or the previous CIPD Certificate in Personnel Practice*) and are working in the field of Human Resources and wish to develop their knowledge and skills; OR have the responsibility for Human Resources activities and decisions within an organisation without a specialist function.

Note: Recipients of the former Certificate in Personnel Practice (CIPD) will be obliged to undertake two additional units of study to complete the diploma. The units are Effective Human Resource Practitioner and Human Resource Information Systems which are timetabled on Monday evening during the Semester.

Course Timetable

The course runs one evening (Over 15 weeks) on Wednesday from 6.00pm to 10.00pm and one Saturday workshop.

Who can apply?

This course is open to all eligible students.

Course Summary & Information
