

Choosing Your Course

TU Dublin Tallaght offers a range of part-time and continuing education programmes. For some it is the opportunity to gain additional professional qualifications to assist in progressing their career. For others it is fulfilling personal goals as part of their lifelong learning journey by taking the opportunity to gain a third level qualification as a mature student. Many students are returning to education for the first time since they left secondary school. Whatever the reason for enrolling, TU Dublin Tallaght supports and helps learners to achieve their goals by providing a wide range of flexible programmes to meet their individual needs.

These include:-

- Foundation and Pre-sessional Programmes:- Each year TU Dublin Tallaght provides short programmes to prepare learners for third level and in particular in the areas of Mathematics and Academic English.
- Higher Certificates, Degrees, Higher Diplomas and Masters Programmes.
- Professional Institutes. TU Dublin Tallaght provides tuition to prepare students for the examinations at the various stages/years of a number of professional institutes. These include Accounting Technicians of Ireland (ATI), the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA), the Institute of Professional Auctioneers and Valuers (IPAV) and Institute of Project Management (IPM).
- Minor Supplemental and Special Purpose Awards. TU Dublin Tallaght is pleased to offer a number of accredited awards that recognize the successful completion of groups of modules in a range of subject areas. These are particularly relevant to those who may not wish to take on a longer course.
- Other programmes. Cisco Certified Network Associate Programme offered in TU Dublin Tallaght and validated by the networking solutions company Cisco.
- Springboard+ ICT Funded Programmes. Each year TU Dublin Tallaght offers a range of programmes funded through the Springboard+ and ICT Conversion Programmes. Applications for these programme is done through the Springboard website <https://springboardcourses.ie>.

Each programme offered at TU Dublin Tallaght has gone through a consultation process with business and industry to make sure that the modules making up the programme are relevant and provide the skills needed to be able to work successfully in that field.
